

WOMEN IN BUSINESS ORANGE COUNTY

The Roving Reporter

RETREAT

Were you there? If you were, you are among the fortunate members who spent a long and lovely weekend in the desert enjoying each other's company as we ate and drank and laughed and shopped and swam and gambled and had a fantastic time together!

The Retreat Committee did a wonderful job in planning our weekend. On the committee were Janis Weaver, Jean Harduvel, Ann Coil, Susan Ford, Sandi Clark, Judi Clark, and Romaine Moehlenbruck. Thank you, ladies! Everyone worked very hard . . . even Judi Clark, who couldn't be there.

There were door prizes for everyone, and special prizes for a select few! These special prizes were for a variety of activities during the weekend, as follows:

Most Relaxed:	Linda Schrader
Most Disciplined at Exercise:	Barbara Nelson
Most Money Spent:	Sandi Clark
Fashion Plate:	Nola Sheldon (stop laughing!)
Best Shoes to Match Gift Purse:	Debra Quam
Party Hearty:	Sandi Clark
Most Social:	Susan Ford

Tidbits:

It was such a fun time! Of course, we had to keep a couple of ladies in check. Debbie Wilson and Shirley McCarthy had a couple of guys in Jake's quite interested in joining WIB . . . at least for the weekend.

Romaine seemed to really enjoy tooling around in her "wheeled chair," and is considering trading in her van. But, can five of us fit in that chair??

Norma Cooper had to make a tough decision . . . chocolate cake or 15 minutes of gambling. She went cake-free and won $27!

Your Roving Reporter managed to fit in a couple of quick visits with her Godchild and family, who live in La Quinta.

Chico's did a land-office business Sunday morning, as all of us descended on the store for a private shopping spree.

OTHER NEWS

Fran Beckman had emergency surgery recently during which she had her gall bladder removed. She says she's feeling much better and will be back among us soon. She will appreciate hearing from her WIB sisters!

Nola Sheldon
Your Roving Reporter

